
Travis Callow

Del Norte High School

Interests: Business | Game Development | NFL Career Aspirations

Objective

Motivated high school student passionate about business, game development, and athletics, eager to create innovative digital experiences while growing as a leader and developer.

Achievements

- Competed in CyberPatriot for 2 years
 - Accumulated 200,000+ visits on Roblox games
 - Developed an AP CSP study game used by 10,000+ students
-

Experience

Roblox Developer

Created and maintained Roblox games with thousands of visits. Developed engaging gameplay and efficient systems.

Open Coding Society

Developed Study Buddy, a study tool for students. Created an Instagram analytics website to identify the best upload times.

Leader, Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA)

Led meetings and coordinated activities promoting teamwork and faith.

Del Norte High School Football Player

Active varsity player with leadership and teamwork skills.

Skills & Knowledge

- Languages: Lua, Luau, Python, JavaScript, HTML/CSS
 - Full-stack development and game design
 - Experience with UI/UX and data analysis
-

Personal Traits

- Highly organized and efficient workspace management
 - Talented and fast programmer with a focus on quality
 - Strong work ethic and grit to overcome challenges
 - Effective leadership and team collaboration skills
-

Interests

- Business and entrepreneurship
- Game development and design
- Football and athletic competition

